Experience the World From a New Perspective

Lindblad Expeditions and National Geographic are united in a shared mission to take curious travelers deeper into storied places that paint a richer picture of our world. Together, we craft itineraries that inspire and transform, pushing the boundaries of discovery to offer wholly unique experiences led by the foremost experts on your destination.

Elegant Ships Befit for Celebrated Ports

Certain destinations are best discovered aboard bespoke vessels that evoke the splendor of their historic ports of call. For select voyages in the Caribbean and the Mediterranean, we travel aboard elegant tall ships from the Sea Cloud fleet—traditional square-riggers that harken back to the Golden Age of Sail. Whether you board the historic 30-cabin Sea Cloud or her modern counterpart, the 44-cabin Sea Cloud II, you will experience all the glamor and thrill of an immersive sailing experience of yesteryear.

Travel With the Most Experienced Team

Explore with an expedition team devoted to ensuring you have an unforgettable experience: historians who give context to seaside fortifications, cultural experts who interpret celebrated culinary traditions, archaeologists who bring the ruins of antiquity to life. Many of our veteran guides live in the destinations we visit and have worked with us for decades. On select departures, travelers are also joined by fascinating guest speakers—including National Geographic Destination Experts—who offer new layers of insight into the places we explore.

With Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic

Take Great Photos With the Pros

Enriching Cultural Encounters

Voyages aboard our tall-ship fleet offer abundant opportunities to explore a destination through its cultural customs, culinary specialties, and musical and artistic traditions. Witness a traditional sword dance performance in a medieval Croatian port town, join the pilgrimage to Greece's holiest shrine, or sit down to a private lunch of local specialties at a beautiful Baroque villa in Sicily. Because Sea Cloud ships are small and nimble, we can travel to secluded harbors away from the popular tourist ports, giving you a more personal perspective on the places we visit.

BOOK EARLY AND SAVE: Save up to 15% on back-to-back voyages in 2026 aboard Sea Cloud II when you book by November 1, 2024.

New & Noteworthy

The 2025–2026 travel season brings exciting changes for this distinguished pair of tall ships. From grand renovations to new voyages in tropical paradise, see what's in store for the Sea Cloud fleet.

A Regal Refurbishment for Sea Cloud

Following the 2025 summer season in the Mediterranean, on the eve of her 95th birthday, the historic tall ship Sea Cloud will undergo extensive updates and a meticulous restoration. Next year, take your final opportunity to sail Sea Cloud in timeless places like the Caribbean, Greece, and Croatia before she sails into dry dock for the foreseeable future.

New Caribbean Voyages Aboard Sea Cloud II

We are delighted to announce that we are expanding our explorations in the Caribbean with the addition of two new expeditions aboard Sea Cloud II: Antigua to the BVIs: Hidden Cays & Azure Seas and Sailing St. Lucia, Dominica & Beyond. These voyages invite you to explore an array of intriguing new island offerings, from the sparkling white sands of Anguilla to the lush forests of the British Virgin Islands and the emerald mountains of St. Kitts.

Get a fresh perspective on tropical paradise as we sail from one idyllic isle to the next, going ashore to snorkel in shimmering turquoise coves, kayak through tangles of mangrove forest, and hike volcanic slopes draped in a thousand shades of green. Along the way, spot a rainbow of Caribbean wildlife, from red-billed tropicbirds to green sea turtles. We'll also delve into vibrant Caribbean cultures that blend the customs of indigenous peoples with those of buccaneers and brigands, sailors and settlers, as we explore military fortresses, manor houses, batik workshops, and much more.

The Art of Sailing

One of the great joys of traveling aboard a traditional tall ship is witnessing the theater of her spirited crew as they raise and lower the sails by hand en route to our next destination. Whether you are just beginning your journey or have already seen the process dozens of times, it is always thrilling to watch acrobatic sailors climb the rigging, loosen the heavy cloth, and haul the lines in from the deck—performing a grand choreography that never ceases to mesmerize. On both Sea Cloud and Sea Cloud II, nothing happens at the push of a button—often, almost a full hour passes before all the sails can catch the wind.

The genuine camaraderie between captain and crew allows them to work in concert. Many of the sailors have been with the Sea Cloud fleet for decades, and for them, the square-rigger is home. As a guest on board these special ships, you become part of their family. The crew is eager to show you the art of their daily work among the ropes, winches, and cleats. And the captain's bridge is always open for an in-depth look at the intricacies of turn-of-the-century navigation, before steamships dominated global waters.

While at sea, the ship engines are only used when necessary, allowing you to become fully immersed in a tranquil sailing experience. Settle into a deck chair with a book and spend long hours under sail, enjoying balmy sea breezes and soaking in the beauty of your maritime surroundings.

Marjorie Merriweather Post, Sea Cloud is the last of the private tall ships and the most beautiful vessel wherever she sails, turning heads from the Caribbean to the Mediterranean.

Sea Cloud's gleaming wooden masts carry 30 sails, which are raised by hand as you venture out to sea. Settle into the comfortable banquette of the ship's "blue lagoon" and take in the theater of sailors climbing the rigging and catching the wind. The

A legend of both her time and today, the historic square-rigger Sea Cloud whisks travelers away to the golden age of yachting, when the billowing sails of majestic windjammers graced ports around the globe. Built in 1931 for the heiress covered lido bar is a relaxing spot for a refreshing drink, and the captain's open-bridge policy invites guests to take an up-close look at the intricacies of sailing this traditional four-masted barque.

The ship interiors are no less alluring, with every detail—from the marble fireplaces to the French antiques—reflecting the extravagant charms of American royalty. Marjorie Merriweather Post was instrumental in designing the staterooms and shared spaces, many of which are outfitted with antiques and period-style furnishing. The 30 outside-facing cabins are uniquely decorated and have hosted illustrious guests from princes to presidents, and cabinet members to celebrities. No accommodations are more lavishly appointed than the two owners' suites: a rich, wood-paneled sanctuary that belonged to Post's financier husband, E.F. Hutton, and the heiress' all-white dream, emanating superb Louis XVI style, gold fittings and all.

LAST CHANCE! The 2025 season marks your final opportunity for the foreseeable to sail Sea Cloud, before she enters dry dock for an extensive refurbishment.

SEA CLOUD II

A Modern Take on a Classic Ship

Expansive outdoor decks and viewing areas tempt guests to soak in scenery and savor the romance of traveling under billowing sail.

Inspired by Marjorie Merriweather Post's historic tall ship, Sea Cloud II celebrates the time-honored traditions of her fleet: the hand-raising of her sails, nightly sundowners on deck, and an open invitation from the captain to visit the ship's bridge. With modern amenities and exquisite style, Sea Cloud II combines the spaciousness of a contemporary vessel with the grace and elegance of a classic square-rigger.

Expansive outdoor decks and viewing areas tempt guests to soak in Mediterranean and Caribbean scenery and savor the romance of traveling under billowing sail. Al fresco dining—accompanied by a pianist and fresh sea air—is offered on the lido deck, where conversation flows and camaraderie comes naturally. While the ship's lavish indoor spaces, like a sizable dining room and lounge, are suitable for formality, there's a lighthearted delight to enjoying them in casual dress. Guests can also take advantage of a cozy library stocked with books on the region and a spa that offers a sauna, fitness area, and massage therapy.

From elegant bathrooms and silk-upholstered furnishings to flat-screen televisions and minibars, each of the 44 outward-facing cabins on Sea Cloud II is outfitted with luxurious and modernized amenities. Sleep like royalty amid mahogany and marble and wake up to bedside views of sapphire seas or the colorful harbor of a quaint fishing village.

Spend days ashore exploring storied destinations from Greece to Croatia and beyond. Or simply settle into a lounge on deck and immerse yourself in the splendor of a bygone era, enjoying balmy breezes and the spectacle of the Sea Cloud II crew working the rigging.

Every aspect of your experience is laid-back and conducive to casual dress, including special events, like the fresh tuna dinner in the ship's sumptuous dining room.
